

Feb. 14 1946

Mr John Harden
265 Anburn St. NE
Atlanta Ga.

Dear Harden:

Since receiving your last letter, I have heard The Yankees may play in Washington Easter, and I was wondering if you were negotiating with anyone else for the date. I do not know whether or not The Yankees have closed the date, but in case they do not come to Atlanta, I would appreciate it very much if you would let me know if the date is open.

I have not arranged any games as yet. It is a shame we Negroes do not get together like the white teams and arrange a schedule that would be profitable to all the teams.

Our league is meeting in New York Feb. 20th. Please let me hear from you before then.

Remember me to your lovely wife. Tell her when she comes this way again to let me know so I can get some tickets for a show.

Very Truly Yours